

2010 Ini-To 324 Klondike Iron Chef Competition Rules

The iron chef competition will be open to all scouts and scouters alike. There will be awards for each division. The format for each division is given below. Each group will be given a secret ingredient (vegetable) that must be used in each of their dishes presented. Each group will be required to present a minimum of three dishes for the competition. Sign-up for the competition will be at the Cracker Barrel on Friday night.

Scout Division:

1. Each team will comprise of up to five scouts. A troop can have more than one full team of five scouts.
2. Each group must sign up for the competition at the cracker barrel and will be assigned a number for the competition on Saturday afternoon.
3. All preparation and cooking will be performed in the designated area for the competition.
4. Each team will be given ninety minutes to prepare a minimum of three dishes for the Iron Chef Competition. The secret ingredient must be used in all three dishes.
5. If a group so chooses to use a dutch oven, the group will have an additional thirty minutes prior to the competition to prepare their coals for the event. Under no circumstances will any additional time be allowed.
6. More than three dishes can be presented for judging.
7. A blind sample judging will occur for presentation and taste. This will comprise 75% of the score.
8. The remaining 25% of the score will be based on teamwork, scout spirit, and method of preparation.
9. All materials (cook ware, stoves, ovens, dutch ovens, meats, garnishments, tables, utensils, etc.) will be supplied by the participating group and brought to the designated area for the competition. The only ingredient provided will be the secret ingredient (vegetable).
10. No adult involvement will be allowed, except to help the scouts bring materials to the competition. Any involvement by an adult during the competition will be grounds for disqualification.
11. A panel of three judges will perform judging. The decision of the judges is final.
12. Awards will be given to each scout of the first, second, and third place teams at the awards ceremony. Winners must be present to receive their awards.

2010 Ini-To 324 Klondike Iron Chef Competition Rules

Adult Division:

1. Each team will comprise of up to five adults with a minimum of two. Each troop can have only one adult team.
2. Each group must sign up for the competition at the cracker barrel and will be assigned a number for the competition on Saturday afternoon.
3. All preparation and cooking will be performed in the designated area for the competition.
4. Each team will be given ninety minutes to prepare a minimum of three dishes for the Iron Chef Competition. The secret ingredient must be used in all three dishes.
5. If a group so chooses to use a dutch oven, the group will have an additional thirty minutes prior to the competition to prepare their coals for the event. Under no circumstances will any additional time be allowed.
6. More than three dishes can be presented for judging.
7. A blind sample judging will occur for presentation and taste. This will comprise 75% of the score.
8. The remaining 25% of the score will be based on teamwork, scout spirit, method of preparation, and good-natured ribbing.
9. All materials (cook ware, stoves, ovens, dutch ovens, meats, garnishments, tables, utensils, etc.) will be supplied by the participating group and brought to the designated area for the competition. The only ingredient provided will be the secret ingredient (vegetable). No electricity will be used.
10. A panel of three judges will perform judging. The decision of the judges is final.
11. Awards will be given to the first place team at the awards ceremony. The winning team must be present to receive their award.