

Tips for New Arrowmen

- Read the OA Handbook
It takes less time than you Think, and is full of information you WANT to know about the Order.
- Set your sights on becoming a BROTHERHOOD member
Along the way, you'll make a lot of friends, learn what it truly means to be a Brother, and fulfill what your fellow scouts see in you.
- Attend Chapter meetings.
You make the Chapter! And at the end of a year you'll have the Obligation and Song down pat, just in time for your BROTHERHOOD Ceremony.
- Attend the next Ordeal as an Arrowman
You'll learn the true meaning of your own Ordeal, and help others along the way, just as someone helped you. Try becoming an Elangomat.
- Encourage camping in your troop.
Service to troop is the first duty of an Arrowman. Help other scouts to become First Class Scouts and encourage them to attend campouts and summer camp.
- Attend Lodge and Chapter Events
Not only will you have fun and fellowship, you'll meet scouts your own age who you can hang out with and learn new outdoor skills to take back to your own troop.
- Wear your new Lodge Flap with pride.
